Settling Accounts

November 15, 2020- Scott Hahn Reflects on the 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A

First Reading – Proverbs 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31
Psalm 128:1-5
Second Reading – 1 Thessalonians 5:1-6
Gospel – Matthew 25:14-30

The day of the Lord is coming, Paul warns in today's Epistle. What matters isn't the time or the season, but what the Lord finds us doing with the new life, the graces He has given to us.

This is at the heart of Jesus' parable in today's Gospel. Jesus is the Master. Having died, risen, and ascended into heaven, He appears to have gone away for a long time.

By our Baptism, He has entrusted to each of us a portion of His "possessions," a share in His divine life (see 2 Peter 1:4). He has given us talents and responsibilities, according to the measure of our faith (see Romans 12:3, 8).

We are to be like the worthy wife in today's First Reading and the faithful man we sing of in today's Psalm. Like them, we should walk in the "fear of the Lord" – in reverence, awe, and thanksgiving for His marvelous gifts. This is the beginning of wisdom (see Acts 9:31; Proverbs 1:7).

This is not the "fear" of the useless servant in today's parable. His is the fear of a slave cowering before a cruel master, the fear of one who refuses the relationship that God calls us to.

God has called us to be trusted servants, fellow workers (see 1 Corinthians 3:9), using our talents to serve one another and His Kingdom as good stewards of His grace (see 1 Peter 4:10).

In this, we each have a different part to play.

Though the good servants in today's parable were given different numbers of talents, each "doubled" what he was given. And each earned the same reward for his faithfulness-greater responsibilities and a share of the Master's joy.

So let us resolve again in this Eucharist to make much of what we've been given, to do all for the glory of God (see 1 Corinthians 10:31). That we, may approach our Master with confidence and love when He comes to settle accounts.

And the Joy of Family Life Daily
Reflections

TO BELIEVE

To believe in a Father who loves all men and women with an infinite love means realizing that" he thereby confers upon them an infinite dignity."

To believe that the Son of God assumed our human flesh means that each human person has been taken up into the very heart of God. To believe that Jesus shed his blood for us removes any doubt about the boundless love which ennoble each human being. Our redemption has a social dimension because "God, in Christ, redeems not only the individual person, but also the social relations existing between men."

To believe that the Holy Spirit is at work in everyone means realizing that he seeks to penetrate every human situation and all social bonds.

- Evangelii Gaudium

Reflection: What roles do the members of the Trinity play in your family life? How does the love of the Father help you give others dignity? How does the redemption of the son help you forgive others? How does the Holy Spirit guide you in situations with your family?
