The Twenty Third Sunday reflection for Year C
Emphasizes the importance of discipleship and commitment to following Jesus. Key themes include:

- Choosing Jesus First: Jesus teaches that following Him requires prioritizing Him above all else, even family and friends.
- The Cost of Discipleship: The Gospel of Luke 14:25-33 highlights the sacrifices involved in discipleship, such as carrying one's own cross.
- God's Wisdom: The readings encourage reflection on God's wisdom and the need for guidance in making choices.
- Detachment from Material Things: The reflections remind us to let go of material possessions and focus on spiritual growth.

These themes invite believers to consider their own commitment to following Jesus and the sacrifices it entails. "Sources" Catholic for Life/ Young Catholics
